AYP Committees

Social & Cultural Committee- responsible for coordinating all social and cultural events. This committee will strive to foster member's relationships amongst other AYP members, community leaders, organizations, and businesses through social and cultural events.

Philanthropy Committee- is responsible for identifying and planning all philanthropic and volunteer activities and events. This committee will strive to select non-profit organizations that align with AYP's mission while coordinating other philanthropic opportunities for AYP members.

Membership Committee- is responsible for the attraction and retention of young professionals to the organization by promoting what the AYP has to offer. This committee will welcome members and guests at events, answer membership related questions, oversee the renewal of current AYP membership dues, and plan membership drives.

Professional Development Committee- plans and executes professional networking events, classes, seminars, and guest speakers in order to further member's professional education, skills, and overall development. These events connect YP committee members with a variety of leaders in the community including business, philanthropic, academic, and political communities.

Communications & Marketing Committee- is responsible for marketing and promoting AYP potential members through all forms of marketing. This committee will maintain the AYP organization's social utility pages on Facebook and Twitter. Committee members will work to cultivate relationships with media outlets, colleges and universities, human resource departments, and other YP group leaders.

Development Committee- responsible for identifying corporate sponsorship opportunities in the Arvada area. These corporations must align with the AYP mission, vision and values and be committed to developing future leaders in Arvada. This committee will cultivate relationships and create partnerships with the corporate community.

Welcome to the Arvada Young Professionals - we look forward to seeing you at our next event!

The Arvada Young Professional Group (AYP) is a meaningful organization of talented young professionals who are dedicated to building a better Arvada. We are made up of motivated, energetic young professionals certain to become Arvada's future leaders. AYP offers its members a way to link their personal passions with professional ambitions.

AYP's agenda is to provide young professionals living or working in our community with the opportunity to expand their personal networks and build lasting connections within Arvada's professional and social arenas. We are focused on professional development, community service and enjoying the local social scene.

Our goal is simple: to engage and connect young professionals and positively shape the future of Arvada.
